Clarification urgently required

Whereas describe in Sub-clause 2.20 in RFP [Disqualification for Participating in Tender] states:

Contractor or sub-contractor cannot participate in the tender in any manner directly or indirectly, in their name or in the name of any other person or firm, in following cases:

a) Those who are prohibited to participate in tender by any government institution, authority and those who are prohibited by law due to having any criminal record or convection....

f) Those who are under settlement with any financial institution or creditors.k) Those who have been determined by any institution or organization or authority or agency for adopting or performing non-professional attitude or unethical or immoral activities or professional malpractices and such determination resulted from administering them during their jobs.

Question: Do the "government institution, authority" mentioned within the above Paragraph a), the "financial institution" mentioned within the above Paragraph f), and the "institution or organization or authority or agency" mentioned in the above Paragraph k) refer to those within the territory of Pakistan or outside?

If the answer is outside or including those outside the territory of Pakistan, then which specific government institution(s), financial institution(s), authority/authorities, institution(s), organization(s), and agency/agencies are counted in?
