- (vii) taking exception to critical provisions such as applicable law, taxes and duties and dispute resolution procedures;
- (viii) a material deviation or reservation is one :
 - (a) which affect in any substantial way the scope, quality or performance of the works;
 - (b) adoption / rectification whereof would affect unfairly the competitive position of other bidders presenting substantially responsive bids.

(B) Minor Deviations

- (a) Bids that offer deviations acceptable to the Procuring Agency and which can be assigned a monetary value may be considered substantially responsive at least as to the issue of fairness. This value would however be added as an adjustment for evaluation purposes only during the detailed evaluation process.
- (b) If a bid is not substantially responsive, it will be rejected by the procuring agency, and may not subsequently be made responsive by correction or withdrawal of the non-conforming deviation or reservation.

2.26. Return of Bid Security.

- a. The bid security of the contractor / bidder who is awarded the work shall be retained and the bid security of other bidders shall be returned after award to successful bidder.
